Lorelay Bové

ENJOY THIS HOLIDAY FAVORITE
THROUGHOUT ITS FINAL SHIMMERING SEASON!

WALT DISNEY World.

IN THIS ISSUE

Our "elves" have been busily working on the best issue ever—but our work is play because it's all about Walt Disney World wonders.

Like all the special events at Magic Kingdom® Park, including Mickey's Very Merry Christmas Party, Candlelight Processional and so much more to enjoy at Epcot®. And your chance to join with us to honor The Osborne Family Spectacle of Dancing Lights in its final year (though our collective memories will cherish it forever).

At Disney's Animal Kingdom® Theme Park, your big gift comes a few months after the holidays, when Rivers of Light brings spectacular lasers, color and music to that fantastic place. Plus, check out the new Star Wars™ experiences coming in January at Disney's Hollywood Studios®.

Whew! That's a lot, Passholders! And it's not all. We're pleased and honored that the acclaimed Walt Disney Animation Studios artist Lorelay Bové created dreamy illustrations just for Mickey Monitor.

But why keep listing what's in it when you can start reading it. Enjoy, and again, happy holidays to you and those you love and cherish.

GET TO KNOW

LORELAY BOVÉ

All the beautiful illustrations in this issue were created by the incredibly talented—and sweet—Lorelay Bové. You've probably seen some of her work before and not even realized it!

Currently Art Director for Disney's upcoming film Gigantic, Bové is no stranger when it comes to Disney animated films. Since joining Walt Disney Animation Studios in 2007, she has created art on The Princess and the Frog, Tangled, Winnie the Pooh and Big Hero 6 and the entire Disney Legacy Collection of special edition classic CD soundtrack albums.

Her personal favorite project was something much sweeter. She had a blast lending her talents to the world of Sugar Rush and some of its candy-coated Characters in Wreck-It Ralph. We had a blast getting to work with her this issue and hope you enjoy her whimsical illustrations as much as we do!

Dear Santa Mickey,

All I want this year is to go back for holiday celebrations at Walt Disney World®! I had the best time at Mickey's Very Merry Christmas Party last year. Can I do it again? I loved seeing the fireworks and parade in person, and not just on TV. I also want to see Disney's Hollywood Studios® decorated in lights one last time before they leave for good. I know I am asking for a lot, but I have one last thing...to travel the world! It would be pretty cool to see the holidays all over the world, or Epcot® at least. Also (last one, I swear), can you get me the same spot for the Candlelight Processional? I had the best view to watch it last year!

If you can't fit all this down the chimney, I understand. Anything from the Holiday Wish List will do!

*Thanks,
Your Merriest Passholder*

*P.S. Can you also bring some Disney holiday sweets?
The gingerbread cupcake is my favorite!*

TAKING ITS FINAL BOWS

Don't miss your last chance to enjoy
The Osborne Family Spectacle of Dancing Lights.

If you've been planning to visit Disney's Hollywood Studios® this holiday season to take in The Osborne Family Spectacle of Dancing Lights, the sprawling holiday display that lights up the Park's sky, streets, storefronts and pretty much everything else—don't put it off. After a memorable two-decade run, 2015 will be the final year for this one-of-a-kind marvel.

Though new and exciting enhancements are planned for the Park that are sure to delight, this true spectacle—in every sense of the word—will surely be missed. So why not rekindle that holiday cheer one last time? For memories that'll last a lifetime.

A kaleidoscope of millions of holiday lights, ornaments, displays and decorations that glitter, gleam, dance, twinkle and enchant are choreographed to a stirring musical soundtrack. Add to that a magical "snowfall" and yuletide spirit to spare, and you've got an immersive experience not to be missed.

And bonus! You can have extra fun by searching for little surprises scattered throughout the lights and trimmings. Like a mysterious purple cat that appears every year, the Osborne family stockings, Hidden Mickeys, a solid white angel in memory of Jennings Osborne and a razorback pig on the Streets of America (the Osbornes are big fans of the Arkansas Razorbacks).

Walt Disney World® Resort bought the original display and its thousands of lights from Arkansas businessman Jennings Osborne in 1995 when it became too massive for his residential neighborhood. Over the years, it continued to grow in its new home at Disney's Hollywood Studios® to what it is today.

Be sure you experience the wonder and holiday magic of The Osborne Family Spectacle of Dancing Lights one last time—or maybe two or three times. If your pass is up to date, then you won't miss out on the last year of this family favorite, Friday, November 6 through Sunday, January 3.

EXPLORE THE MAGIC OF HOLIDAYS AROUND THE WORLD

It's an annual spectacular not found anywhere else.

You don't need to circle the globe to celebrate the season with a decidedly international flair.

Epcot® is all aglow with twinkling lights, special decorations, lively pageantry, fun kids' events and more. And it's the only place where you can experience 11 nations with their holiday customs on full display highlighted by traditional music, costumed performers and unique observances. A feast for the eyes, ears and soul, Holidays Around the World is a storybook experience come to life.

All around our "world," an amazing holiday wonderland awaits you to explore. In the Germany Pavilion, Helga regales with the story of the first Christmas tree. Spend time in Norway and discover the story of Julenissen, the Christmas Gnome. In Mexico, you'll be enthralled with the Three Kings' journey to find the baby Jesus. Bask in the a cappella group Voices of Liberty, clad in Dickens-era costumes, as they perform a special repertoire of holiday favorites under an acoustically perfect dome. And, of course, Santa and Mrs. Claus will appear November 29–December 24 to grant all your wishes.

"The music intertwined with the story is truly the gift," he told us. "And each performance is its own experience."

For him, it's all about being in the moment. "I love the feeling from the choir and the orchestra as we finish. It's very moving."

MORIMOTO ASIA OPENS ITS DOORS

The restaurant brings Asian flair to Disney Springs™

You've probably been wondering what will occupy the massive Springs Bottling Co. building. Well, there is no need to try to peek through construction walls anymore because Morimoto Asia is officially open. The restaurant comes from The Patina Restaurant Group and Japanese Master Chef Masaharu Morimoto, who gained recognition from his appearances on Iron Chef America.

"I'm very excited to bring this new concept to Disney, something I've always dreamed of," said Chef Morimoto. "It's a wonderful chance to share some of my favorite foods from across the Asian continent."

Make sure to bring your appetite because you'll want a bite of every delicious dish Chef Morimoto has cooked up, including

Peking duck, orange chicken and L.A. BBQ Kalbi Ribs. You can even watch behind the scenes as chefs prepare your order in an exhibition kitchen. For a different kind of dining experience, head upstairs and L.A. BBQ Kalbi Ribs: Marinated and grilled boneless short ribs, house kimchi, gochujang sauce.

Peking Duck: Carved house-roasted whole duck, served with steamed flour pancakes, apricot sweet chili and hoisin miso.

pull up a chair at the sushi bar. This high-top counter serves up a variety of sushi and sashimi. If you're feeling adventurous, order up some freshwater eel, octopus or Japanese red snapper. There's also plenty for the kids to enjoy, including Kakuni Pork Bao, a soft steamed bun filled with tender pork, and Duck "Nasi Goreng," an Indonesian-style duck fried rice topped with an egg yolk. With dishes starting at $14, this is truly a place the entire family can enjoy.

Sit back and enjoy your meal inside with a view of the exhibition kitchen, outside on the patio or in a secluded dining room with your closest friends and family. Enjoy lunch, dinner and weekend brunch at this new restaurant that is sure to become your favorite.

CELEBRATE THE WONDERS OF NATURE

It's almost time to see Disney's Animal Kingdom® Theme Park in a whole new light.

Though a Guest favorite since it opened, Disney's Animal Kingdom Theme Park hasn't exactly been known for its after-dark activities. But that's all about to change—in a big way.

In spring 2016, a slate of new and thrilling evening experiences in special locations throughout the Park will debut—all capped off by the stunning Rivers of Light. And it's all designed to incorporate the majesty of nature with that Disney touch.

“The nighttime life of Disney's Animal Kingdom Theme Park has this quality of magic.”

“The nighttime life of Disney's Animal Kingdom Theme Park has this quality of magic,” Walt Disney Imagineer Joe Rohde explained.

Unfolding on Discovery River between Discovery Island® and Expedition Everest®, Rivers of Light will blend twirling and spinning animal visuals, a soaring musical score, multicolored water screens, floating lanterns and more. “In this show, we combine light and fire and water,” Joe says. “Out of that comes this fantastically rich explosion of animal life that ultimately rises up into the sky and joins the stars. And you're going to want to see that.”

As the sun finds the horizon, Kilimanjaro Safaris® will also extend into the nighttime hours. Guests visiting the attraction will discover two new species on the savanna: African wild dogs and hyenas.

Add up all these magical additions and you might say that the Park will now encompass the sun, moon and stars. An all-day destination like never seen before. Or, as Show Director Mark Renfrow put it, “Just as so many animals come alive at night, Disney's Animal Kingdom Theme Park after dark also offers so many wonderful new possibilities.”

Visit the Disney Parks Blog to get the latest on all the innovative offerings.

Don't miss out on a moment of these all-new, all-spectacular nighttime offerings debuting spring 2016.

A PARADISE FOR MOVIE LOVERS

Look for a new host, a new film montage and more at a beloved Disney's Hollywood Studios® icon

Earlier this year, the "Spectacular Ride Through the Movies" got a dose of pixie dust AND Hollywood glitter. The Great Movie Ride® received a curated refresh for its pre-show experience and its finale, all presented by TCM (Turner Classic Movies), the 24-hour, commercial-free channel devoted to great movies.

One of TCM's most popular personalities, author/historian Robert Osborne, now serves as your host of The Great Movie Ride. "I love it whenever they showcase classic films and I've always loved the work Disney has done through the years," he said. "We have a great relationship with Disney through TCM Cruises and the TCM Film Festival."

Robert spent his early career as an actor, part of a select group of talents handpicked by Lucille Ball for her Desilu Playhouse workshop. "Lucy was terrific. If Vivien Leigh or Bette Davis were in town, she'd introduce us." Lucille even guided Robert in becoming a film historian. "I will always appreciate her for that."

The recently refreshed trip through the movies is just part of the new film fun. Also at Disney's Hollywood Studios®, you can re-create the allure of the classic Chinese Theatre handprint ceremony at a clever photo opportunity at the end of The Great Movie Ride.

"I'm very happy to be a part of it," Robert added. "And I'm just as excited as everybody else to experience it all."

NEW!

{ "TREASURES FROM THE DISNEY VAULT" }

The partnership of Disney and TCM extends to your home TV screen, too. Every month, TCM presents classic films, vintage television shows, rarely seen footage and fascinating behind-the-scenes stories.

Hosted by renowned film historian and author Leonard Maltin, these presentations are a total delight for everyone who enjoys this very special kind of animation magic and live-action.

"I'm happy to have worked with TCM to select a wide variety of goodies from the Disney vault," said Leonard. "They will be parceled out in special evenings like this every few months, all for Disney fans to rediscover or experience for the first time."
